BOSTWICK-FRASER-COUPER HOUSE

Marietta, Cobb County, Georgia

Owner: Mrs. C. J. Murphy and sister, Mrs. C. O. Sanger.

Date of Erection: Approximately 1844.

Architect - Builder:

Present Condition: Fair.

Number of Stories: Two.

Materials of Construction: Brick Foundation. Wood construction above foundation.

Other Existing Records: First Hundred Years (History of Cobb County) by Temple, Page 137.

Additional Data: House square in plan. Gable roof. Front part of roof has double pitch to cover two story porch with four Doric Columns across the front. Balcony over doorway. Two outside chimneys at each end. Brick one story wing at the right connected with the one story lean-to on the rear. House somewhat unusual in its plan and in the use of reeded columns, and in the French casement windows opening on to front porch.

Built by Chas. C. Bostwick . After his death bought by the daughter of John Couper from Scotland, Mrs. John Fraser, who came from St Simons in early 1850 s. Mrs. C. J. Murphy is the great grand-daughter of Mrs. John Fraser and the grand-daughter of Mrs. Fraser's brother, William Audley Couper. Mrs. Murphy inherited the property from her grandmother, Mrs. Selina Fraser Stubinger, and gave her sister, Mrs. C. O. Sanger half interest.
